

I am writing to urge the Federal Government not to change Indiana's current "No Call List" with an implementation of federal legislation. If Indiana's current law were to change, it could dramatically effect my family's harmony. I feel this would be an infringement on not only my privacy but also my civil liberties.